

Reliability and Integrity of Case Files

Definition: The percentage of files that can be retrieved within established time standards, and that meet established standards for completeness and accuracy of contents.

All Courts

Content Reliability

