

Parenting Facilitator

Goal: To assist parents in separated and/or divorced families in resolving parenting issues through non-confidential procedures.

1. Help with ongoing disagreements about implementation of a parenting plan.
2. Reducing of the cost and burden of continued litigation.
3. Facilitation of the resolution of disputes.
4. Education about children’s needs.
5. Parties will be assisted in implementing (not modifying) safe and workable parenting plans.
6. A Report to the Court will be submitted as requested by the Court.
7. Detailed records regarding meetings and contacts with the parents, attorneys, or parties to the suit will be kept and will be available to the Attorney for a party, a pro-se party, or Attorney for the child upon request.
