

IN THE COUNTY CRIMINAL COURT TWO EL PASO COUNTY, TEXAS

THE STATE OF TEXAS
VS

CAUSE NO.

ADMONISHMENT TO DEFENDANT ON DEFERRED ADJUDICATION

I have pleaded guilty or nolo contendere. I have requested that I be granted deferred adjudication community supervision and the Court has granted my request. I have been informed by the Court that if I violate a condition of probation imposed upon me, I may be arrested and detained until I can be brought before the court for a hearing. I am entitled to a hearing limited to the determination by the court of whether the court will proceed with an adjudication of guilt on the original charge. The determination to proceed with an adjudication of guilt on the original charge is reviewable in the same manner as a revocation hearing conducted in a case in which the adjudication of guilt was not deferred. (Art. 42A.108 TCCP)

If the Court proceeds with an adjudication of guilt, all proceedings, including assessment of punishment, pronouncement of sentence, granting of community supervision, and defendant's appeal, continue as if the adjudication of guilt had not been deferred. (Art. 42A.110 TCCP)

I have been informed of my right to receive or petition the Court for an order of nondisclosure under Subchapter E-1 of Chapter 411 of the Texas Government Code, as applicable, unless I am ineligible for an order of nondisclosure because of (1) The nature of the offense for which I was placed on deferred adjudication community supervision; or (2) My criminal history.

ORDER

The Court having received the Defendant's plea of guilty or nolo contendere and having heard the evidence, finds that the evidence substantiates the Defendant's guilt. The Court further finds that the best interest of society and the defendant will be served by placing the defendant on deferred adjudication community supervision.

Therefore, without entering an adjudication of guilt, the Court defers further proceedings and ORDERS that the Defendant be placed on deferred adjudication community supervision for _____ months as provided by Article 42A.101(a), TCCP.
