How a "Flag Stop" System Works - Passengers can board the bus at any point along the route by flagging down the bus driver, as long as there's sufficient space for the bus to safely pull over on the side of the road. Additionally, passengers can board at any time stop location listed in the schedule above, seen as orange numbered dots on the map (used as time reference points).

Tomando el autobús - Los pasajeros pueden abordar el autobús en cualquier punto a lo largo de la ruta levantando su brazo para detener el chofer, siempre y cuando el espacio adecuado para los autobuses. Los puntos naranjas sirven como referencia de tiempo.
