

Limited Investigation

Goal: To provide specific information to the Court in less time than required for a complete social study.

1. Individual interviews of the parents or parties to the suit, children, professional collaterals and personal collaterals might be conducted.
2. Criminal records of the parents or parties to the suit might be reviewed.
3. A home visit may be conducted.